Their informative presentation contributed to a better understanding of the police department (PD).

6. Open Discussion

- The (PD) has not provided information about its activities to the board members. To remedy this, the neighborhood resource unit will take responsibility for sharing the necessary details.
- The annual 12 days of Christmas roll call activities will begin next month. It's a great way for police officers to engage with the community.
- A movie is scheduled to take place at the park this week to ensure the safety of the attendees; there will be an increased police presence during the event. The board suggested Ginger engage with the community members.
- Volunteer activities for the PD, which have been inactive for some time, are being suggested to be resumed.
- Residents and commuters face traffic issues on 58th Street and 107th Avenue, particularly during peak hours between 4-6 pm. The board proposed that the police department assist with this issue.
