INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S COMPILATION REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Parks & Police 4 Kids, Inc.
Doral, Florida 33166

I have compiled the accompanying statement of financial position of Parks & Police 4 Kids, Inc. (a Florida nonprofit organization) as of September 30, 2014, and the related statements of activities for the year then ended. I have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

My responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

Management has elected to omit the statement of cash flows and substantially all of the disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. If the omitted disclosures were included in the financial statements, they might influence the user's conclusions about the Organization's financial position and changes in net assets. Accordingly, these financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

Doral combines National Night out with city's backpack giveaway

◀ 1 of 5 ▶

BY CARLI TEPROFF
cteproff@MiamiHerald.com

It didn't take long for Demo to find what he was looking for. And when he did, the crowd went crazy.

That's because the Doral K-9 officer discovered an "explosive" with only his nose.

The demonstration was part of Doral's National Night Out and Back-to-School event Tuesday. Communities around South Florida and nationwide held events Tuesday to bring awareness to crime prevention.

In Doral, hundreds came out for the event, which included a backpack giveaway, bounce houses for kids, police demonstrations and free food. "I think it's a great idea to have both together," said Doral resident Robert Lendof, who watched the K-9 demonstration with his 12-year-old daughter Emily.

"I didn't know the dog's were that smart," she said.

Doral Mayor Luigi Boria said marrying the two events together was a "perfect match...We wanted to welcome the new year and acknowledge how important the police department is," he said.

Doral celebrates newly combined National Night Out and Back to School Night

1 of 11

BY DANIEL HIDALGO
dhidalgo@MiamiHerald.com

Half an hour before the start of Tuesday's festivities at Downtown Doral Park, hundreds of residents were already out in full force. Many stood in a line that stretched about a quarter of the way around the three-acre park to receive the 500 backpacks the city was giving away as part of the event.

On the southwest corner of the park, multiple generations congregated at the playground; older sisters pushed their little brothers on the swing while grandma kept an eye out. Next to the playground, young children crawled, tumbled and ran through a makeshift obstacle course while volunteers cheered them on.

The event, coordinated by the Parks & Police 4 Kids Foundation, a nonprofit city initiative, combined two events from last year that were previously separate – National Night Out and Back to School Night. National Night Out is an annual community-building event meant to educate residents on issues regarding public safety and build trust between residents and their institutions.

"By combining both events we can prepare families for back to school season while equipping them with beneficial tips on crime watch and public safety for all ages. Additionally, Parks & Police 4 Kids Foundation strives to provide child welfare and family services to the community to ensure children are healthy, safe and active," said Doral spokeswoman Maggie Santos in a written statement.

The event turned out about 2,000 people, more than double the expected attendance. Members of the city council, including Mayor Luigi Boria, who helped hand out backpacks to the children, as well as local businesses and organizations also took part in the event.

"It's great," said Doral police Neighborhood Resource Officer Luis Martinez, who helped put the event together. "A bigger turnout means more community involvement, and the community is essential. Without them, we can't do our jobs."

For Maria Blanco, a Doral resident since 2007, these opportunities to interact with the community set Doral apart from other cities as a place to raise her 4-year-old daughter, Gabriela Ascanio.

"I love the recreational aspect of the city. I have friends who live in other parts of Miami, but they don't have parks where they can take their kids to play," said Blanco, 34. "I plan on having another baby, so I plan on taking advantage of it even more."

Downtown Doral Park, located directly across from City Hall, sits in the heart of the development that will make up Downtown Doral. Towards the south of the park is a complex of luxury condominiums, to the west a construction crane near Northwest 87th Avenue and 53rd Terrace currently overlooks the park.

In the past year, the city has approved two more new parks: Doral North Park and Northwest 114th Avenue Park. As budget season approaches, the city has placed a special focus on developing it's parks and recreation infrastructure.

Parks and Recreations Director Barbara Hernandez believes that events like these are important in executing the city's goals.

"It builds community," Hernandez said. "People get to know their neighbors in a different setting. One of our main goals is getting people together and helping them enjoy their leisure time."

Directly to the west of the park, the street lined with vendors. Carolina Ale House brought chicken wings. Café Domino made espresso. Rey David Delicatessen brought an assortment of sweets and baked goods.

The street was also the site of a demonstration in which a police officer showed off his impressive canine partner – drawing the most attention from the crowd that gathered.

Helen Witty staffed a booth for those interested in information about Mothers against Drunk Driving. Fernando Horruitiner and his son, Gavin, waited for possible new recruits for another year of Cub Scouts.

"It's a nice thing that we get to do at the end of the summer since school is about to start up," said Horruitiner, who makes a living as a banker when he is not doing service work for the Cub Scouts. "At the end of the day, it's about providing activities for the kids and having a good time."

Parks and Police 4 Kids Back to School Night

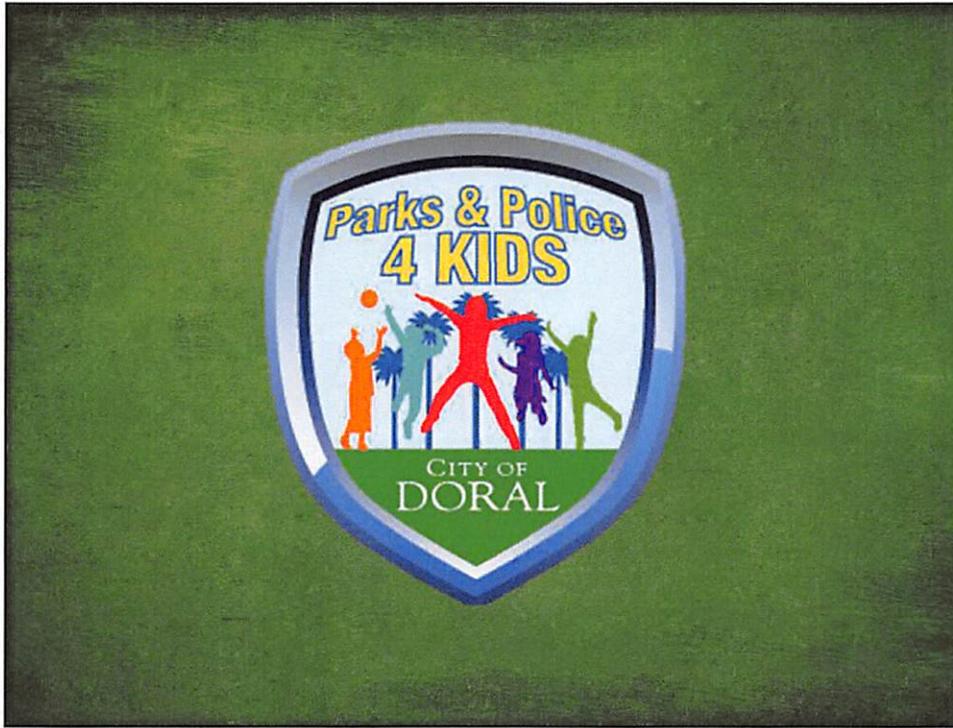

August 5, 2015

Dear US Conference of Mayor's,

Board Directors

Parks & Police 4 Kids
Foundation

It is with sincere gratitude that Parks & Police 4 Kids Foundation (PP4K) accepts the kind donation of the iPad that was given to the City of Doral Mayor, Luigi Boria, when he recently attended the US Conference of Mayors Conference. Parks & Police 4 Kids is a 501 (c) (3) not-for-profit corporation organized to provide child welfare and family services to the community. PP4K works closely with the City of Doral Mayor, City Council, Police Department and Parks & Recreation Department to coordinate events and programs throughout the year geared towards achieving this important goal.

The board approved to have this iPad raffled off to a Doral resident that attended our annual Back to School Night event, hosted by Parks & Police 4 Kids Foundation. The Back to School Night event took place on Tuesday, August 4, 2015 at Downtown Doral Park. Over 2,000 people attended the event, where 500 backpacks filled with school supplies were given away. In addition to the backpack giveaway, attendees were able to learn safety techniques from the Police Department and gather information from local businesses, organizations and schools on after school activities offered in the community to prepare them as they head back to school! Being able to raffle off this iPad will help that lucky child chosen to enhance their educational experience as they prepare for the upcoming school year.

Again, we greatly appreciate this donation and the opportunity to enhance a child's educational experience with the receipt of the iPad.

Respectfully,

Parks & Police 4 Kids Foundation Directors

May is a little concerning for me and all of us due to the park possibly opening during the month of May or June. Maybe we could have hold off on September or October. See if we could reach out to her after August 5th to give her a better date.

Hi Erin,

Mostly all Saturdays are looking good in May, September and October of next year. We are still pretty far out for the September and October months and I can tell you October will be a little bit harder to get and a Saturday in September should be easier. What I would do is come back with 4-5 dates that would work well for you and then I will talk the dates over with my team and we will let you know which works best with the hotel.

Let me know as soon as you are able!

Thanks,

Rebecca

This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

SECTION 1. Definitions

a. Interested person—any director, officer or member of a committee with governing Board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.
