MY MIAMI STORY

100 CONVERSATIONS TO SPARK CHANGE

Life in Greater Miami is captured in stories from the 2.6 million people who call this place home. My Miami Story adds your voice to the countywide conversation about who we are, where we're going and what we can do to get there.

On October 18, 2016, we're inviting 100 Miamians to kick off My Miami Story by hosting their own conversation. We'll need your email address to keep you informed, phone number to reach you on the day of the event (if necessary) and mailing address to send you a simple host toolkit.

More about My Miami Story

You and every other Miamian has a story – how you got here, why you stay, what you want for the future. When we have a chance to talk about our experiences in this town and hear others, we connect and learn about what matters to all of us. My Miami Story gets people talking about the Our Miami Report. Check back at ourmiami.org on October 16 to see the updated 2016 report.

That's what these conversations are all about: getting Miamians thinking about the issues they care about, whether it's making sure our kids get a good education, finding a safe, affordable place to live, or landing a job that's close to home. They're about creating a space for you to link up with friends, old and new, who feel the same way (and maybe some who don't). They're about discovering how each of us can join the thousands of people making Miami-Dade County a better place to live for everyone.

This conversation is just the spark. How you take that spark and ignite change in your community is totally up to you.

What you're signing up for

To host a conversation with 6-10 friends over breakfast, lunch, dinner, during a cafecito break or any time in between. The invite list is up to you – friends, family, colleagues, neighbors – and you can host them anywhere from in your home to the break room at work, your church or at a restaurant.

A few weeks before the conversation, we'll send a Host Toolkit with everything you need, including a conversation guide and easy ideas for taking action after your event. If you have additional questions, email us at mymiamistory@miamifoundation.org.
